

These Football Frenzy Winners have something to cheer about!!

In life, nothing ventured, nothing gained....and the same is true in Football Frenzy unless you are on of the four winners in the first seasonal game. These winners attended a Football Frenzy event at their local club, and filled out an entry form. As part of the Football Frenzy promotion, the AF Food and Beverage Division selected four lucky club members from nearly three-thousand entries received during the first six weeks of the promotions to attend a regular season NFL game between the Carolina Panthers and the Arizona Cardinals. The winners were: SSgt Alfred Bernard from Ellsworth South Dakota, SMSgt Neville Comas from Tinker AFB Oklahoma, Victor Madaris from Yokota AB Japan and MSgt (ret) Frank Johnson, from Patrick AFB, Florida. Each winner and their guest received airfare, hotel accommodations, a rental care, and tickets to the game. Winners traveled to Glendale, AZ on 29 Oct 09 and were recognized at a welcome breakfast on 30 October, and a farewell dinner on 2 November as part of the package.

After a couple of days to relax and enjoy the Arizona sites, and weather, the winners and their guests returned home on 3 November.

It pays to be an Air Force Club Member. Our Football Frenzy entry won us a trip of a Lifetime!
